

Action Aid – Autumn Appeal Thank You Letter - 2010

Dear

It took four long years for Jyoti to find her sons.

They'd been stolen and put into slavery.

But thanks to gifts like the <$giftamount> you so kindly sent to Action Aid, other children like Deepak and Vishal, only 8 and 6 when they were taken, can be rescued too.

Your gifts to Action Aid mean we can work with local organisations like Volunteers for Social Justice (VSJ) in India, which rescued Deepak and Vishal.

Thanks to this work, some 30,000 people have been liberated so far, with the help of VSJ.

Your gifts help to free people from slavery. I know this seems extraordinary in this day and age, but it's true.

There are still half a million people suffering in slavery in the Punjab area of India alone. It is only with the ongoing help and commitment to human rights shown by people like you that this will change.

Thank you again for your generosity, your commitment and your compassion. Your gift is greatly appreciated.

Warm regards
